On Sunday morning last, Mr. John W. Stanton, of Hancock county, in undertaking to cross Buffalo Creek with his horses and buggy, at a ford on Judge Berry's plantation, had the misfortune to have his horses drowned, and came near getting a small colored boy's life lost in the same way. On the 8th instant, Mr. W. C. Smith, who lives near the Oconee River, in Hancock county, killed himself. Cause—pecuniary troubles. Mr. Smith leaves a wife and several children.—Southern Times and Planter.

LONDON, March 19.—The press of the city this morning, in commenting on the statement to the House of Commons last night relative to the reply of the American Government to Earl Granville's note, generally express the opinion that the communication of the Premier will create disappointment and apprehension throughout the country. The government is urged to bring the present difficulty with America arising out of the claims for indirect damage to an amicable and honorable solution.

Granville announced in the House of Commons, in reply to America's note, which was dispatched on Thursday, that the honor of the country must be maintained. [Cheers.]

FRANCE.

GENERAL WADE HAMPTON.—We regret to learn that this distinguished Carolinian has determined to make his permanent residence out of the State. The name of Hampton is a synonym for grace and goodness; a household word, and loved and respected by all. In the days when the State was in the zenith of its beauty, wealth and intelligence, Gen. Hampton moved as he now moves among men, with simple, suave and generous mien Lavish hospitalities nor rustic fare; the elegant amenities of conventional life nor the homely cares of the humble hearth, make differences with his heroic sentiments—he proudly stands on high ground, true to all that ennobles, refines and beautifies the humanities. We regret the departure of such men as Hampton, yet we cannot blame him, for it is the society and not the soil which makes the State. He is the Chevalier Bayard of the State, and his record belongs to old Carolina. On his moral escutcheon is engraven—Sans peur es sans reproche."—Newberry Herald.

HOW TO PREACH.—It appears from Leifchild's own account of his labors in the recently published biography, that he regarded the livery and preparation of his discourses, and being of almost equal importance. In the following quaint "precept for remembrance," he expresses the manner in which, in his opinion, his sermons should be preached:

"Begin low,
Proceed slow;
Take fire,
Bl-e higher;
Be self-possessed
When most impressed."

KEEPING TO ONE THING.—We earnestly entreat every young man, after he has chosen his vocation to stick to it. Don't leave because hard blows are to be struck, or disagreeable work performed. Those who have worked their way up to wealth and usefulness do not belong to the shiftless and unstable class, but may be reconed among such as took off their coats, rolled up their sleeves, conquered their prejudice against labor, and manfully bore the heat and burden of the day. Whether upon the old farm, where our forefathers toiled diligently, striving to bring the soil to productiveness, in the machine shop or factory, or the thousand other business places that invite honest toil and skill, let the motto ever be, Perseverance and Industry.

☞ Supposed colloquy, apropos to Ben. Butler's going into church:

Paternal Butler—Now, my son, you see nothing pays like the church in New England. To prosper among the saints you must become a clergyman.

Little Benny B—Why, father! You know I'm not good enough to go into the church.

Paternal B.—Pshaw, son! Don't raise objections. Wasn't Judas Iscariot one of the apostles?

☞ Dr. Prime, in his "Travels in Japan," says: "Passing through a street and seeing some forty or fifty coppers hanging on as many nails at the front of a shop (the copper coin has a hole in the centre,) I inquired what they were for, and was told they were placed there by the shopkeeper to save time and trouble in answering the calls of the mendicants. When one came along he simply took a copper and passed on, never abusing the charity of the housekeeper by taking two."

☞ A fancy farmer of Scott county, Kentucky, is said to have built a $2,000 hog pen, which is painted and grained, furnished with hot and cold water, warmed with steam, and lighted with gas. There is a fine library, where can be found Cobb's Elementary Works, the works of Bacon, inquiry regarding the descendants of Hams, Hogg's poems, Cobden on the corn laws, and the popular little poem, "Root Hog or Die." The troughs are mahogany, inlaid with ivory, and furnished with Phelan cushions. Whenever a hog is led out to execution, chloroform is administered.—Georgetown Times.

☞ Frederick the Great said: "As for my plan of not sparing myself, I confess it the same as before. The more one nurses one's self, the more feeble and delicate does the body become. My trade requires toil and activity, and both my body and mind must adapt themselves to their duty. It is not necessary that I should act. I have always found myself the better for this method. However, I do not prescribe it for any one else, and am content to practice it myself."

WENDELL PHILLIPS on Tom Scott: "Your great fellow-citizen, whom some people irreverently call Tom Scott, is at the head of a company controlling $350,000,000. He places one hand on the Atlantic and the other on the Pacific; his influence extends from Saginaw to Mobile, and when he walks eastward from the Golden Gate, the wind of his coat tails topples over a State Legislature at every stride."—New York Sun.

OFFICE WEAVER & CO.,
Successors to W. H. Middleton & Co.,
Provision, Flour, Grain and Bagging Brokers,
Corner 2d and Main streets,
LOUISVILLE, KY., March 16, 1872.

(REPORTED SPECIALLY FOR ATLANTA CONSTITUTION.)

The past week has been one of change in prices of bacon. This market opened at 5¾, 7¼ and 7½ for shoulders, clear rib and clear sides, packed. Then the market gave way under Cincinnati and St. Louis weakening until prices run down to 5½, 6¾ and 7¼ for shoulders, clear rib and clear sides. At these figures all was sold that was offered to brokers. Prices being the same as Cincinnati and St. Louis, and Southern buyers preferring our packing at same prices.

At the close, speculative demand as well as Southern orders were large, and prices again moved up and closed at 5¾ to 7a7¼.

BULK MEATS.—Not much offered as packers prefer holding bulk rather than sell at ruling prices. At St. Louis and Louisville bulks are well cured, and by adding ¼c more expense, planters can make choice bacon with no risk. Prices for bulk are 5a6¾a6¾. Large lots ¼c to ½c less.

HAMS.—Magnolia 12a12½; Leib's Pedee etc. 12a12¾. Some good S. C. brands 11¾a12, with order in hand for large lots of fifty to one hundred tierces at 11½ to 11¾ could be gotten off.

We can buy either brand for April, May, June and July, in equal quantities at 12c, packed, one cent margin paid.

LARD.—We can buy country packed leaf lard 8¾; kegs 9¼a9½; same as the lard sold by St. Louis and Cincinnati at corresponding prices. (Than Louisville city lard none stands higher.) O. K., Thomas, McMahon, etc., 9¼a9½; tierces 10a10½; kegs as to quality

HAY AND CORN.—We are shipping Timothy this week at $23 00 on cars, free of brokerage; at close might furnish at $23 50 a ton. Our market better supplied now, and orders will be filled more promptly. White corn 61a62; mixed 60a61; can shade large lots orders. We quote corn on cars, free of drayage and commissions.

FLOUR.—Our market as low or lower than St. Louis on the same grades. We quote extra $6 25a6 50; extra family $7 25a7 50; A No. 1 $8a00a8 50; fancy $9 00a9 25.

REMARKS.—The impression is prevalent that the crop of hogs killed will reach 4,750,000, or more, and that prices may go lower, or at least go no higher. We would make this remark: Whilst the killing is large, we must not overlook the fact that the export demand has taken nearly one-third of the product to date, and again low prices will increase the consumptive demand, and cause speculation. Bagging, 15½a16½a17a17½, as to brands, weights, etc.

AFTER THE STATE'S MONEY.

Attachments Against the Men Who Got the Money.

Yesterday, on information filed by Col Candler and his Investigating Committee, a number of attachments were issued against the men who, upon investigation, have been found to have shared in the State Road money.

The aggregate runs to over $200,000, and the attachments touch the following parties:

Scofield Rolling Mill, $57,000. This is for iron.

Foster Blodgett nearly $60,000. This is exclusive of the $20,000 covered by his bond. Included in this item is $16,000 collected from the Post Office Department and never accounted for. The items are various. Blodgett has been writing back to be permitted to return without arrest.

N. P. Hotchkiss $14,000. This is exclusive of $20,000 covered by his bond. It includes all sorts of comical items, from horses to coal. One item of $875 is for use of sleeping car; another of $80 is for whisky; $180 for a horse.

Varney A. Gaskill $15,000. Of this $8,500 is the Dobbins money, retaining fees; $100 for trip to Savannah, making speeches for Green Line, etc.

James Mullens $8,000. This includes domestic items of house-fencing, double pay, etc.

A. L. Harris $8,000. Switches, not for thrashing children, are included here.

John Rice, proprietor of New Era, $35,000. This is the amount of State's money used to buy the Era from Dr. Bard.

I. P. Harris $19,000. There is no attachment here as the bond of $190,000 covers the amount.

The uses to which the State Road money was put were odd and various. Buying newspapers, importing race horses, running turf exchanges, building houses, junketing, etc, etc. Verily we shall never see the like of these Radical jokers again. From Blodgett and Bullock down they constitute the most inimitable band of festive yet practical plunderers that the world ever saw.

The Perplexities and Troubles of a New York Financier Hitched on to Southern Carpet-bag Securities.

A TINKLING TALE.

We give to our readers this morning a batch of extracts from letters of Henry Clews & Co., of New York, to our late lamented Rufus, relating to the financial matters of Georgia. The reading is very racy.

It throws light on a variety of interesting public matters. Coming from the great financial monarch himself, the mighty Clews, the statements may be presumed to furnish clues to facts of public importance.

We believe Mr. Clews has denied being the State's agent. The following will throw light on this matter:

BANKING HOUSE OF HENRY CLEWS & Co., 32 WALL STREET, NEW YORK, Nov. 4, 1870.

His Excellency Rufus B. Bullock, Governor, etc. Atlanta, Ga.:

DEAR SIR—We beg to acknowledge receipt of your order appointing our London house Financial Agents for the State of Georgia in Great Britain, and we would beg on their behalf to render you their grateful acknowledgment of the honor thereby conferred, and to assure you that no effort shall be wanting on their part to promote in every way in their power the interests and credit of the State which they represent.

We have the honor to be, very respectfully, your obedient servants,

HENRY CLEWS & Co.

December 2, 1870, Mr. Clews wrote to Gov. Bullock to fix up papers to use on Angier. Among others, he wanted Mr. Tweedy, as Speaker of the House, to send official denials of the truth of Angier's statements for use abroad. As Tweedy was not the Speaker, this looks like the manufacture of falsehood.

WON'T TELL THE TREASURER.

AN IMPORTANT LETTER — THE ORDERED OPINION OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL—THE PRESS SECURED—HOW THE MARKET DOCTORED—FINANCIA LSTRATEGY.

BANKING HOUSE OF HENRY CLEWS & Co., 32 WALL ST., NEW YORK, Dec. 17, 1870.

His Excellency R. B. Bullock, Atlanta, Ga.:

DEAR SIR—The opinion of the Attorney General in regard to the new bonds, which your telegram directed us to expect will, we believe, establish beyond a doubt the malicious and unfounded nature of the Treasurer's aspersions. The reports which, by his agency have been industriously spread, we have anticipated and forced all, not only through the medium of the press, but by protecting the credit of the State in regard to its former issues of bonds now on the Stock Exchange, which had a tendency to suffer under the influence of the disturbing rumors. We at once took measures to support the price of the securities at the Stock Exchange by giving orders to buy all offered at 91¼ and 91½, and in this way we succeeded in checking the tendency to depreciation; and we believe we can say that this course has contributed much to give the lie to the Treasurer's statements. We were compelled to take a large number of the currency 6s and 7s, but we willingly submit to carry the load for the sake of maintaining the reputation of the State, and we expect shortly that the public mind here will be so disposed that we shall be able to make sale of our purchases without a loss, if not at a profit. The bonds are now quoted at 92½ for the 7s and 82 for the 6s, which is an advance of one per cent. over quotations six months ago. We have left no stone unturned to direct every means toward the elevation of the State's credit here. Our plan is by elevating the reputation and prices of the Stock Exchange securities here to so affect the minds of foreign investors that they appreciate what is actually the case, that the gold 7s at the subscription price will afford them the best employment for their money of any American security.

We remain, very truly yours,

HENRY CLEWS & Co.

December 24, 1870, Clews writes that he that day agreed to loan Bullock $100,000 to liquidate State Road indebtedness. This was remarkable, coming right on the giving up of the road by Blodgett and Bullock.

PART OF THE GEORGIA PRESS GOBBLED, AS WELL AS THE NORTHERN PRESS.

BANKING HOUSE OF HENRY CLEWS & Co., 32 WALL ST., NEW YORK, Dec. 22, 1870.

His Excellency Rufus B. Bullock, Atlanta, Ga.:

DEAR SIR—Our Mr. Lewis has just returned from the South, and has told us the result of his interviews with you. During his trip, he called upon various editors of the opposition papers, and they represented to him that they would cease their attacks upon the credit of the State in virtue of our connection with it and our unhesitating indorsement of its correctness on all points. We hope that this promise has been in some measure fulfilled in your State. In this city we have checked numerous assaults. Some very bitter attacks upon the administration were sent the other day to the World, Herald, Express, and Journal of Commerce, of which notice was sent to us and we caused their non-appearance. The effect would have been very damaging, and we take much credit to ourselves in having been able to suppress them. Now that the election is over, we hope that fewer occasions will arise for the exertion of our vigilance in this way.

We have the honor to be yours very truly,

HENRY CLEWS & Co.

ANOTHER SHORT LETTER—PLEASED WITH THE ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OPINION—THE BONDS ON THE BOARD—FALSE BIDDERS EMPLOYED—JOHN E. JAMES TROUBLES CLEWS.

BANKING HOUSE OF HENRY CLEWS & Co. 32 WALL ST, NEW YORK, December 29, 1870.

His Excellency Rufus B. Bullock, Atlanta, Ga.

DEAR SIR:—We have the honor to acknowledge your communication of instant covering the opinion of the Attorney General in regard to the recent Bonds and the correspondence accompanying the document. We are much pleased with the opinion, which appears to us to traverse the whole ground and to be explicit and logical in all respects. The good of this document we do not over estimate.

We are happy to be able to inform you that the bonds were to-day called at the New York Stock Exchange, and will appear regularly upon the list hereafter. We have accomplished their introduction after much endeavor and argument. This first result being obtained, the rest is easy, and all that is necessary is time, in order to enable us to report satisfactory sales either in this market or on the other side.

We are somewhat annoyed by the obstacle which meets us at the outset, from the fact that Mr. James, of your city, holds $100,000 of the new issue which he is very anxious to sell. Our desire would be, at once, to engage a number of parties to bid for the bonds at the Stock Exchange, and thus appreciate them. We can easily infuse an appearance of much spirit in the dealings in them, and could probably sell many here while at the same time facilitating the efforts of our London people. The first result, however, of our initiating the movement above indicated, would be to find ourselves saddled with Mr. James, $100,000 and Mr. Kimball's, $250,000. We have had much correspondence with the former gentleman, but have been unable to induce him to withhold his bonds from sale for thirty or sixty days, and this have a clear field. If you are able to command any arguments more potent we believe it would do much to the advantage of the State to induce him to remain quiet for a short time. It looks to us as if he was trying to compel us to take his bonds, as a preliminary to the sale for account of the State. We have the honor to remain, Yours very truly,

HENRY CLEWS & Co.

BOTHERED BY DUPLICATE BONDS.

BANKING HOUSE OF HENRY CLEWS & Co, 32 WALL ST, NEW YORK, January 4, 1871.

His Excellency R. B. Bullock, Atlanta, Ga:

DEAR SIR—We enclose herewith two (2) additional bonds of the State, bearing the same No. (1) which were among those presented by the Mechanics Bank. You will readily understand what an embarrassing position we are placed in by attempting to redeem such bonds at our own risk.

We remain yours very truly,

HENRY CLEWS & Co.

DR. ANGIER CHOKED OFF—WILL DO WHATEVER BULLOCK WANTS.

BANKING HOUSE OF HENRY CLEWS & Co., 32 WALL STREET, NEW YORK, January 10, 1871.

His Excellency Rufus B. Bullock, Atlanta, Ga.:

MY DEAR SIR—Your telegram desiring me to refer Mr. Angier to the Executive office for any information for which he may apply at my banking house, will meet my careful observance. You can be assured that in all respects I will conform my action and that of my house to subserve your wishes and the interests of the State.

I am yours very truly,

HENRY CLEWS.

FORGED BONDS POURING IN.

BANKING HOUSE OF HENRY CLEWS & Co., 32 WALL STREET, NEW YORK, Jan. 16, 1871.

His Excellency R. B. Bullock, Atlanta, Ga.:

DEAR SIR—Referring to what we have previously written in regard to the redemption of the Georgia securities, we beg now to inform you that three (3) bonds, indentical in respect to signatures, general appearance and numbers, have been presented at our office. A large number with duplicate numbers have appeared. Under these circumstances, we are obliged to repeat our previous understanding, that such payments are made only at the risk of the State, and we assume no responsibility whatever of the genuineness of certificates presented, using only our best judgment in the premises.

We remain your obedient servants,

HENRY CLEWS & Co.

On the 31st of January, 1871, Mr. Clews writes that his London house has sold $500,000 of new gold issue of bonds, and thinks it a great achievement in view of the facts. He adds:

"We think it will be well to keep this confidential until the entire loan is disposed of—our efforts in London reaching Angier's ears he would be likely to use his influence against the negotiation. For this reason our friends have not advertised it as widely as they otherwise would have done."

HOW CLEWS TRIED TO FOOL ALTON ANGIER—HE KEEPS GEORGIA BONDS UP—TIGHT MARKET—HOLDING BACK KIMBALL.

BANKING HOUSE OF HENRY CLEWS & Co. 32 WALL ST, NEW YORK, January 23, 1871.

His Excellency Rufus B. Bullock, Atlanta, Ga.:

DEAR SIR—Mr. Kimball informs us that young Angier has again used his interview with us, or has endeavored to do so, as a weapon against you. If he has stated verbatim the language used it would reflect upon you favorably rather than otherwise. We did not tell him that you had directed us not to give him information, but we declined to give him information and stated that you had informed us that all and any information which his father desired could be had at the Executive office. He asked for a copy of your dispatch, which we declined to give him. We treated him with politeness and kindness, and he evidently seemed pleased with the interview, so much so as to invite our senior to dine with him at the 5th Avenue Hotel, where he was staying, which, in consequence of other occupation by him, was declined.

We have not failed, however, during this time to sustain by buying all offered of Georgia 6s and 7s, so that to-day they stand as high as at any time for the past six months. Keeping the quotations up in these securities at the New York Stock Exchange has a most important influence in counteracting all rumors circulated to injure the State's credit. They do more to give them the lie than any answers through the public press which could be written, however strong the language might be.

There is, however, an improved aspect of affairs here now, although the stringency which Wall street has for the past thirty days passed through, has been unequalled in the experience of any of the oldest financiers here. For many days in succession as much as one-half per cent. each day was freely paid on governments and the most current collaterals.

I am urging Mr. Kimball, therefore, to move very cautiously between now and April 1st. He then can easily make up for lost time by crowding all the force upon the Brunswick and Albany Road which he can obtain, leaving no doubt in my mind of his ability to carry the road to completion before the close of summer.

Very respectfully and truly yours,

HENRY CLEWS & Co.

BULLOCK DRAWING TOO HEAVILY—CLEWS ALARMED.

BANKING HOUSE OF HENRY CLEWS & Co., 32 WALL STREET, NEW YORK, February 4, 1871.

His Excellency Rufus B. Bullock, Atlanta, Ga.:

DEAR SIR—Your telegram received directing us to pay Western and Atlantic notes as specified for—$6,176, $8,282, and $15,625—and has been duly honored.

Our advances on account of the State, including the obligation to Russell Sage, Esq., $275,000, for the payment of which we are committed, reaches nearly $1,300,000, which is formidable. We hope, therefore, that we shall not be called upon to increase materially this amount. Southern securities are not at present held, either here or in Europe, in very high estimation.

We remain, your obedient servents,

HENRY CLEWS & Co.

SURPRISED, CLEWS FLATLY REFUSES TO ADVANCE ANY MORE.

BANKING HOUSE OF HENRY CLEWS & Co., 32 WALL STREET, NEW YORK, Feb. 7, 1871.

His Excellency R. B. Bullolk, Governor, etc., Atlanta, Ga:

DEAR SIR—We received, this morning, your letter of the 4th instant, advising drafts upon us to the extent of $100,000. We wrote to you on the 4th instant in regard to the condition of our account with the State, and our hope that our advances had reached their limit. We are taken somewhat by surprise, in view of previous advices received from you in regard to the probable requirements in advance of the sale of the gold bonds, at this present call upon upon us. A letter has also come to hand to-day from the Ohio Falls Car Company, of Jeffersonville, Indiana, informing us that they have $300,000 of the the Western and Atlantic paper, maturing at our office shortly, a part of which they ask us to discount. Further advises come from the Philadelphia Works, with a similar proposition in regard to $24,000 which they hold. These figures and prospective obligations are too large not to occasion surprise and hesitation on our part about making further advances against the securities we hold. Our obligations already leave us only a fair margin against the collateral which secures them. In view of what is above enumerated, we have this morning telegraphed you:

"We are unwilling to increase our advances for the present."

The following statement will show the condition of our advances assuming the value of the collateral at 90 cents, which in present condition of Southern securities is much too high a valuation:

$1,650,000 bonds at 90c $1,485,000, against which our disbursements and obligations amount to $1,300,000—this includes our liability to Russell Sage, to whom we are obligated to pay him from the avails of the gold bonds we now hold on account of the State, leaving only about 10 per cent. margin for our protection, as the account stands at present; whereas the lowest margin ordinarily accepted by bankers is 25 per cent.

We think, on this statement, you will realize that our position. will justify us us in our request that you should provide otherwise than by draft upon us for the amount required.

We remain yours very truly,

HENRY CLEWS & Co.

On the 21, of February, Clews writes that he has seen Angier's damaging report for 1870, and asks attention as to how it shall be met.

On March 8th, Clews writes that the editor of the Financial Chronicle is going to give a big article on Georgia finances, and he (Clews) wants facts "to shape this authoritative statement as favorable as possible."

On the 12th March, Clews telegraphs in hot haste that the Northern papers are beginning attack, and he must have facts to meet them.

KIMBALL AND CLEWS AS AUDITORS.

NEW YORK, March 21, 1871.

His Excellency, R. B. Bullock, Atlanta, Ga:

Mr. Kimball has presented his authority as Auditor of the State account with ourselves which has been duly recognized by us.

HENRY CLEWS & Co.

On April 15th, Clews telegraphs and writes again that he cannot increase advances.

CLEWS OWNS HE HAS OVERSTEPPED HRUDENCE—RASPS BULLOCK FOR ASKING HIM TO PAY STATE ROAD ACCOUNTS, WHICH THE LAW CHARGES TO THE TREASURY—JUGGLING.

BANKING HOUSE OF HENY CLEWS & Co. 32 WALL ST, NEW YORK, April 18, 1871.

His Excellency R. B. Bullock, Governor, etc., Atlanta, Ga.:

DEAR SIR—We have to acknowledge receipt of telegram from you further in relation to Western and Atlantic notes for $20,000 which you say are the last of the kind we shall be called upon to meet. We have had from the beginning of our relations with the State a desire to do everything in its behalf which we could compatibly with our own security. This feeling has already induced us to outstep the bounds of business prudence, and although the additional advance asked is small in comparison with past favors granted, yet we must adhere to our conviction, as expressed in our last, of the impossibility of increasing our advances until some sales of bonds are consummated.

The Treasurer's report acknowledges collection of almost $1,000,000 of revenue during the past year; against these collections, as we understand the law, these Western and Atlantic obligations are clearly chargeable. We send you vouchers for claims on this account to the extent of about $150,000. It seems to us as if this amount, or a portion of it, would be reimbursed by the Treasury if properly presented. We would ask you, therefore, to deliver to Messrs. W. M. & R. J. Lowry the vouchers and the powers of attorney which we sent you. If we should succeed in collecting this or a portion of it, we should then be willing to comply with your desire in regard to the recent calls upon us. We think when presented through the house named that the old obligations may not improbably meet with some recognition from the Treasurer.

We have written to Messrs. Lowry in accordance with the above views, requesting them to call upon you for the vouchers and powers of attorney, which please deliver to them.

We remain,

Yours very truly,

HENRY CLEWS & Co.

BULLOCK GOES BACK ON HIM, MAD.

BANKING HOUSE OF HENRY CLEWS & Co. 32 WALL ST, NEW YORK, April 20th, 1871.

His Excellency, Rufus B. Bullock, Governor, etc., Atlanta, Ga.:

DEAR SIR—Three notes of the Western and Atlantic Railroad Company, in favor of the Rodgers' Locomotive and Machine Works, for $19,041 52 each, were this day presented at our office far payment. We were naturally surprised at this occurrence, in view of your recent telegram informing us that we had seen the last of such obligations which we should be called upon to pay. Thinking you may not be informed of these, we feel it our duty to apprise you of them.

We remain, yours very truly,

HENRY CLEWS & Co.

A CURIOUS, STRANGE LETTER—CLEWS SEEKS TO PRESS THE STATE ROAD NOTES HE HAS PAID THROUGH OTHER PARTIES ON THE TREASURY—BULLOCK STOPS HIM.

BANKING HOUSE OF HENRY CLEWS & Co., 32 WALL STREET, NEW YORK, April 27, 1871.

His Excellency Rufus B. Bullock, Gov., etc., Atlanta, Ga.:

DEAR SIR—We have to acknowledge your favor of the 25th instant, and the receipt by express of a package of Western and Atlantic vouchers with powers of attorney. We sent a simalar package, containing obligations, to the amount of $50,000, on the 19th January, five days later than the first. As suggested by you in your letter, we have instituted inquiries at the express office to learn what had become of these without as yet any result. We have written to Messrs. Lowry, influenced by your suggestions, saying that we shall not find it necessary to avail of their services in passing the Western and Atlantic claims. In this connection we would disclaim any intention of discourtesy toward yourself either individually or officially in our request to transfer the papers to Messrs. Lowry. We were ignorant of the fact that the claim must be proved before you to secure your Executive warrant, and our feeling was that probably Messrs. Lowry, being distinguished parties and bankers, could urge a claim upon the Treasury, which you might deem incompatible with your official dignity in pressing to a conclusion yourself.

We reciprocate all that you say in regard to a desire to preserve harmony in all matters between the State and ourselves. We trust that our action in the past and in the future will evince this spirit.

We remain, dear sir,

your very obedient servents,

HENRY CLEWS & Co.

The above is a most significant letter. Clews was sharp enough to see that Bullock had no business to be ordering him to pay State Road claims, and so seeks to get payment from the Treasurer of what claims he had met at Bullock's request.

July 8th, Clews writes Bullock that he wants official statements to give Henry Schuler, brother-in-law of the proprietor of the Frankfort Zeitung in Germany, to help the Georgia securities in Europe. The pith of such statements to be as follows:

"We have stated to him that but few of the new roads hereafter will be commenced and built, calling for the State aid, as the aid is so small, $10,000 to $12,000 per mile, (being not more than half the amount required to build them) they would find it more advantageous to issue their own first mortgage from $20,000 to $30,000 per mile. It would be well to maintain this in your statement. Your statement will be published in the German papers, and in no way used on this side."

Mark the trick and deception in this.

November 4, 1870, Clews writes to Acting Governor Conley, paying homage to the rising sun, congratulating him on his accession to the Governor's chair, complimenting him, begging him to stand up to Bullock's bonds and them, and using this remarkable paragraph, which will alike surprise and delight Dr. Angier:

"The unfortunate difference existing under Governor Bullock's administration between the Executive and Treasury officials, of the causes and merits of which dispute we have never pretended to form an opinion," etc.

He concludes by offering his best services.

December 9, 1871.—Mr. Clews is unable to explain the fact of 40 coupons being detached from the lithographed bonds sent by him to Governor Bullock cancelled. He says:

"The absence of Mr. Kimball and his records occasions a difficulty which his papers, we believe, would speedily explain."

Has the fact ever been explained? Are not these the very bonds on which Mr. Johns said he loaned Kimball $100,000, and which Mr. Johns has never troubled himself about since his return to New York with his purpose avowed to make Clews get him out of the scrape.

HOW CLEWS MANAGED THE NEW YORK WORLD, AND HIS CLAIM THAT HE HAD THE WHOLE PRESS OF HIS SECTION IN HAND.

BANKING HOUSE OF HENRY CLEWS & Co., 32 WALL STREET, NEW YORK, Dec., 10, 1870.

His Excellency Rufus B. Bullock, Atlanta, Ga.:

DEAR SIR—The "World" of this morning contains an article, inserted through our influence, (which we have marked and sent you,) in reply to a statement from Atlanta, in the form of a letter purporting to give the debt of the State at far above its true figures. We called upon the editor in person and represented to him the injury such unauthorized statements would cause the material interests of the State if allowed to go uncontradicted, and furnished him the data on which to base his denial.

We shall continue to follow up, in like manner, all similar attacks on the credit of the State, whenever and wherever made, and trust by this means to disabuse the minds of the public of any false impressions in reference to Georgia finances.

We deem it due to ourselves to say that we supposed we had blocked all avenues for the dissemination of such attacks as referred to above, but this one, coming in the form of a letter from a correspondent, was overlooked and the insertion apologized for by the editor in charge. You can rest assured, however, that our vigilance has only been sharpened, and no similar attacks for the future are at all likely to find their way into print in this section of the country.

We have the honor to be,

yours very respectfully,

HENRY CLEWS & Co.

December 27th and 28th, 1871, Clews & Co., and Hiram B. Crosby write letters to acting Governor Conley for an official statement that the two millions of gold, quarter'y bonds, of the Act of September 15th, 1870, and the million of gold semi-annual bonds of the Act of October 17th, 1870, have been lawfully issued and registered and will not be repudiated, in order to allay the fears of the European owners of these bonds.

CLEWS BEGS TO BE EXCUSED IN THE PRESENT CONDITION OF PUBLIC FEELING, FROM TELLING ABOUT THE CURRENCY BONDS IN HIS POSSESSION.

BANKING HOUSE OF HENRY CLEWS & Co. 32 WALL ST, NEW YORK, December 29, 1871.

His Excellency Benjamin Conley, Governor &c. Atlanta, Georgia:

DEAR SIR—We beg to acknowledge receipt of communication from your Executive Secretary, dated 18th inst., discussing the matter of the currency bonds lodged with us, and making various quotations from correspondence between ourselves and Governor Bullock.

We should prefer, in the present condition of public feeling, to defer dwelling upon this subject, and venture to hope that your excellency will coincide with us in our desire to postpone agitation of this question. In the present state of affairs, we cannot but feel that our interests demand that we should retain all securities which we have in our possession. We beg to disclaim any intention of discourtesy in postponing discussion for the present, being influenced only by a desire for the good fame of the commonwealth, and to avoid further exciting a disposition, which already exists to many in the Legislature, to consider financial matters of the State from personal or political standpoint, rather than in the light of moral and legal obligations.

Yours very truly,

HENRY CLEWS & Co.

This most extraordinary letter closes our present publication.

We have not space to comment in this issue. These letters afford a remarkable revelation of the character and policy of Mr. Clews—a character not to be admired in the light of commercial fair dealing, a policy not to be commended in any aspect. The tricks, deceptions, and evasions of this individual stand out conspicuously.

We shall say more hereafter.

ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCHES.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, March 19.—The case of Avery and others, indicted under the enforcement act for the killing of one Jim Williams while attempting to prevent colored people from voting in South Carolina, has now come up before the Supreme Court and was argued on. A motion was made by the government to dismiss the writ of error because it is from a motion to quash, which was wholly within the discretion of the court below, the government insisting that as the matter was within the discretion of the court this court has not jurisdiction to review it.

The case involves the constitutionality of the enforcement or Ku-Klux act of May, 1870, on the question whether the fifteenth amendment authorizes the legislation, or in other words whether the act is an appropriate legislation to carry into effect the provisions of the amendment. The Government takes the affirmative of the question and the defense the negative, insisting that the amendment authorizes no legislation of the subject of suffrage, but leaves that matter wholly with the States, except to provide that they shall make no law debarring any citizen from the right on account of race, color or previous condition of servitude. It is also contended by the defense that the act makes no provision for a proceeding against individuals, except where attempting to do the prohibited acts by authority of the statutes of a State.

The case is conducted by the Attorney General and Assistant Attorney, Hill, for the Government, and by Henry Stanberry and Reverdy Johnson, for the defense. It has been heard so far only on the motion to dismiss, and may not be now heard on the merits. It will be heard further to-morrow.

There was a full Cabinet to-day.

Warmouth says his visit here is not political.

Francis Thomas, of Maryland, has been nominated for Minister to Peru.

The British American Claims Commission meets to-morrow. The time for filing claims expires on the 26th of March.

The Senate bill giving the officers and men of the Kersage $19,000 for destroying the Alabama was passed.

The Committee on Finance reported adversely on the bill substituting compound interest notes for legal tenders.

A bill compelling banks to hold their reserve fund in coin, was discussed without action.

The Chicago Relief Bill was discussed to adjournment.

Ramsey, from the Committee on the Post office Department, reported a bill authorizing the construction of a railroad bridge at Arkansas.

Sherman, from the Committee on Finance, reported the following bills adversely, and on his motion, they were indefinitely postponed:

Cole's bill to abolish the income tax. Sumner's bill to reduce internal taxes and abolish the office of Commissioner of Internal Revenue, and Johnson's bill to provide an adequate supply of circulating medium to the States—the medium to be distributed to the States needing it.

In the House the President was requested to give all the information in his possession regarding the imprisonment of Dr. Howard, in Cuba.

A bill compensating the captors of the Alabama, was passed.

A petition from four thousand persons in California, for female suffrage in the Territories and District of Columbia, was read. Sargent, who presented the petition avowed himself in favor of this movement.

The Post office appropriations was resumed. The increased subsidy to the Pacific and China mail was passed. Beck said it was the enteriug wedge to a series of subsidy bills, of which seventeen are now pending.

The House adjourned without action.

Probabilities.—Rising barometer with Northwesterly winds and generally clear weather, will prevail on Wednesday from the Northwest to Florida, and Eastward to the Atlantic. A decided fall in the temperature will extend during to-night South-eastward over the valleys and lower lakes, to the South-Atlantic states, and over the Middle and New England states. The brisk and high Northwesterly winds over the Middle and New England states, will probably diminish in force during to-night, and on Wednesday dangerous winds are not anticipated for the Atlantic and Gulf coast.

Martin La Truite, convicted of keeping a gambling house, has been sentenced to one year imprisonment in the penitentiary.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, March 19.—There were further enormous transactions in Erie shares to-day, the price advancing from 49 to 51. The present Stock Board announced that it had been officially notified by President Dix that the transfer books would be reopened on the 20th instant.

There were twenty-nine cases of small pox yesterday; one increase.

The brig Georgia, from Georgetown, D. C., was burned at sea on the 16th. The Captain and crew are here.

VIRGINIA.

RICHMOND, March 19.—There was a fire at Tredegar this morning which destroyed the Iron Works, carpenter shop and stable, together with nine horses and mules. Loss ten thousand dollars, insured.

RUSSIA.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 19.—The Empress of Russia is ill.

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, March 19.—The Grand Jury of the United States Circuit Court indicted Lawrence and Fields, Revenue officers, for taking bribes.

The report of the Board of Health shows many cases of small-pox in private practice, of which it had no suspicion. Typhus and typhoid fevers are prevalent in the house of Good Sheppards. Brooklyn has forty-two cases now there, including four of the Sisters of Mercy, while another of the latter place, has died. Physicians are as yet unable to check the disease, and patients are being removed to country hospitals for contagious diseases. Six deaths have occurred in Brooklyn since the 14th instant, from cererbo spinal menengitis, which has appeared to some extent in all parts of that city.

ENGLAND.

LONDON, March 19.—In the House of Lords this evening Baron Redesdale said he had no desire to endanger the Government. He thought rather an expression of opinion on the part of this House would be useful. He therefore gave notice that he should introduce a resolution declaring that it is the common interest of all nations to decide whether, when belligerents have been reconciled and become one nation they can demand as such from the neutral State indemnity for damages done one of the belligerents. Redesdale said if this resolve was carried he should move that an address be made to the Crown praying that the International Congress be called by Great Britain for the settlement of this question.

The Earl of Derby has given notice that he should ask the Government what course it intended to pursue with regard to the treaty of Washington.

In the House of Commons Disraeli gave notice that he would bring to the consideration of the House the state of the relations with the United States.

Horseman reminded the House that he had already notified the government of his intention to question it, and he begged for a reply now. Was Mr. Gladstone prepared to give Parliament assurance that in case fresh negotiations were entered upon with the American government no proposals would be finally accepted until they had received the sanction of Parliament?

Gladstone said he was sorry that he was unable to answer the question to-night, as he had had no opportunity to give the subject the consideration it demanded, or even to consult with his colleagues.

Horseman intimated that he should repeat the question to-morrow.

NOVA SCOTIA.

HALIFAX, March 19.—Snow blockades continue. The want of coal is severely felt by many families. The Government is selling coal in small quantities. Business is stagnant, from the absence of mails, and none arrived from the vessels overdue.

NYMPH OF THE LURLEBERG.—In all the glory of its gorgeous dress, and in all the symmetry of its many limbs, this extravaganza was placed on the boards last night. Miss Lydia Thompson is a beautiful woman by nature, a pleasing singer, and a most exquisite danseuse; and as she flashed across the stage in much brilliancy as "Sir Rupert," last night, she brought every power and possession to bear upon the susceptibilities of those "in front." Her vivacity and sparkle, her grace and abandon, and her natural, but finished acting, was the subject of enthusiastic comment. The "Lurline" of Miss Weathersbey was exceedingly good, her brilliant talents and exquisite powers of portrayal in burlesque, were rightly appreciated. With her form of symmetry and pretty face, her arch songs, deserved the emphatic encore they received. Miss Dubois has a hair of blonde which makes the most elaborate chignon look tame. She is a piquant little beauty, has a good voice, is a finished actress, and from her pink boots to her blonde hair is voted dangerous. All regretted that as Lady Una, she was not seen more. Beckett read the language of burlesque as few do. His Seneschal was very good. Edonias Waycist was almost perfection. His ballet imitations should be dispensed with. While in some respects they amuse, in very many others they are highly objectionable, and to a large number in the audience offensive. In short the entertainment was very beautiful as well as amusing.

The dashing little manageress of rare ability and genuine merit has a benefit to-night. An excellent bill will be presented. After the burlesque Les Brigands, the travestie of Bret Hart's little game, with all the accompaniments of Washee-Washee, and "six light bow-ah," will be rendered.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT—HON. JOHN ERSKINE, JUDGE, PRESIDING.—The following were declared by verdicts of the jury to be forfeited to the government, yesterday: two barrels brandy, one barrel whisky, one gray mare, one mule, one sorrel mare, one gray poney, one ox, one wagon and two oxen.

Asa White and Lewis Dever were severally tried for illicit distillation and found not guilty.

William Stanfield plead guilty to illicit distillation, and was sentenced to six months imprisonment and to pay a fine of $1,000 and costs. The cases of Henry Post and James Dickey, charged with illicit distillation, was set down for trial to-day.

By consent of the parties litigant, Judge Erskine granted the injunction prayed for in the case of Henry Clews & Co., vs. J. W. Wofford, et al, and appointed D. W. K. Peacock, Receiver. The injunction does not restrain the officers of the Cherokee Railroad Company from holding their annual meeting and electing officers.

TO OUR COUNTRY READERS.—We are aware of the truth that there is but little money in the country, and in the cities too for that matter. We know too, that the scarcity of the needful cramps some of our country friends. The idea is not to become discouraged, but to persevere. It is some time yet before the wheat and fruit crops will come in, to the relief of farmers and all classes. But if our country friends will lay their traps and secure the otter, beaver, mink, muskrat, opossum, coon and wildcat, the skins of these animals will bring them a handsome revenue. Fur skins of all kinds command high prices. W. M. & R. J. Lowry are buying largely and paying big prices. Bring on your fur skins, and you will be enabled to buy your dry goods, groceries, etc., and to pay for your paper promptly.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY.

THE FESTIVAL OF IRELAND'S PATRON SAINT.

An Irishman carries his heart in his hand—
It flows like the water that circles this land;
It beams in his eye, and there's nought so sincere,
As an Irishman's smile, or an Irishman's tear.

Let the Spaniard exult in his mines of Peru,
The soil where his gold and his miseries grew,
Far nobler the mines of an Irishman's breast,
The coin of the soul, with God's image impress.

To his God and his country he nobly adheres,
Tho' he combats in shackles and worships in tears,
And nations rely on the light of alarm,
On the Irishman's faith, and the Irishman's arm.

Oppression in vain would his spirit subdue,
'Tis elastic as air and as piety true—
From the tomb of her Emmett shall freedom ascend,
And his dirge with the pean of victory blend.

Though genius emblazon the yoke that it wears,
As bright as the belt of the heavenly spheres,
That yoke will be burst as the lion his toil,
And vanquish the tyrants and rescue the spoil.

Till liberty welcomes the wanderer Aonia,
Hibernia! thy children in exile may roam;
Still true the light of their path be the star of the West,
To reveal the asylum of virtue opprest.

Agricultural Items.

The potato crop of Maine last year is estimated at 2,500,000 bushels.

A cheese factory is about being started at Lake Crystal, Minn., with the milk from 400 cows.

The receipts of the Iowa State Agricultural Society last year were $32,280 95, and expenditures $15,779 95.

The seed establishment of Briggs & Bro., Rochester, N. Y., is said to have over 60,000 square feet of floor room.

In June last there were 6,700,000 sheep in Scotland, 4,500,000 of which were on regular mountain sheep farms, the remainder on arable lands.

The culture of rice is attracting the attention of agriculturists in California. The valleys of San Joaquin and Sacramento rivers are said to contain extensive swamp lands suitable for the culture, the climate also being favorable and the soil rich.

Commercial.

Corn sells for 20 cents per bushel in Johnson county, Kansas.

The annual export of British textile fabrics is nearly £86,000,000.

The whisky sales of Cincinnati for 1871, amounted to 291,206 barrels at $14,751,978.

Virginia is exporting slate to Massachusetts. One company last year shipped 4,000 tons valued at 100,000.

The total receipts of grain at Chicago in 1871, reducing flour to its equivalent in wheat, were a little over 83,000,000 bushels.

Kansas City now claims to be the great beef packing point in the United States. During the past the season 45,543 head were slaughtered there.

Educational.

The Agricultural College Funds held by Ohio, February 1, was $459,647 08.

During the past two years $1,230,000 has been added to the school house property of Iowa.

New York has eight Normal schools, for the support of which $160,000 are appropriated annually.

In Mississippi, during 1881, there were 3,000 public schools, with 3,300 teachers and 90,000 pupils in attendance.

Governmental.

The number of employees in the post office department at Washington is 331.

Nebraska was admitted into the Union in 1867. Its population in 1870 was 122,983, and valuation of property $53,000,000.

In the month of December postal service was extended to 928 miles of new railroads on twenty-nine different lines opened in that month.

California pays the highest salary to its Governor—$7,000 per annum. New Hampshire and Rhode Island pay the lowest—1,000.

The amount refunded by the United States to the States for expenses in raising volunteers is about $39,000,000. The balance claimed is about $5,000.

NILSSON'S TARDY WEDDING.—A Boston letter to the Hartford Times says:

After the conclusion of her engagement with Strakosch, Nilsson goes to London, together with the majority of the troupe, where the Drury Lane Theatre has been engaged by Mr. Jarrett, her agent, for a series of operatic performances before the close of the season. According to the present programme Nilsson is then to marry her French lover, but as the time approaches for the consummation of the contract Nilsson realizes the risk, the sacrifice she may make of herself, and it is my firm opinion that she will not marry, or at any rate for some time yet. She herself has very often stated that she desired to sing for ten years yet, and she knows that she cannot do that and be a wife as well. If she would retain her profession and her fame she must remain Nilsson, otherwise she can afford to marry, possessing as she does now about one round million of dollars in gold.

THE PLAY OF LALLA ROOKH.—The properties, dresses, scenery, and general accessories of the new spectacular piece "Lalla Rookh," about to be produced at the Grand Opera House, are represented to be one of the most magnificent description. On Saturday evening next a full dress rehersal is to be given, to which a select few only have been invited, and on next Monday evening the play will be presented to the general public. A fountain of perfumery is to play in the corridor directly in front of the superb mirror ornamenting the space between the late Col. Fisk's two lower reception rooms. It will be attended by a beautiful girl dressed in a rich oriental costume.—N. Y. Sun.

BE CHEERFUL.—Emerson says: "Do not hang a dismal picture on your wall, and do not deal with sables and glooms in your conversation." Beecher follows with: "Away with these fellows who go howling through life, all the while passing for birds of paradise. He that cannot laugh and be gay should look well to himself. He should fast and pray until his face breaks forth into light." Talmage then takes up the strain: "Some people have an idea that they comfort the afflicted when they groan over them. Don't drive a hearse through a man's soul. When you bind up a broken bone of the soul, and you want splints, do not make them of cast iron." After such counsellings and admonitions, lay aside your long faces.

☞ A letter from Berlin, published in the London Times, thus states the military condition of the Continental powers: Germany has at her immediate disposal 1,000,000 men; the French army is to be raised to 630,000 men, and in twelve years it will be increased to over 1,200,000; Austria has at present available for duty more than 600,000 men, and in a few years the Russian army will number 1,600,000. The same letters mentions that the total loss in men of German armies in the late war with France was 180,000, of which more than one-half are invalidated.

☞ The World says: "The young women who bewail their hard lot in being excluded from masculine academies, and whose mature sisters claim for them the world's protection against the tyranny of selfish man, have had the tables turned on them by two great lubberly boys, who clamor for admission to Vassar College. It remains to be seen if the argumentative sauce which women's journals concoct for the case of the goose who wishes to be matriculated among scholastic ganders will equally apply to these male featherless bipeds. We pause for an answer."

☞ A soldier who was an inveterate joker and punster, having had his nose, left cheek and a portion of his chin carried away by a shot, in the battle of Shiloh, was asked by some of his comrades if they could do anything for him: "Boys," said he, speaking as well as he could in his mangled condition, "I should like a drink of water mighty well, if I only had the face to ask for it."

DEAD MEN TELL NO TALES.—If they did, anathemas against the depleting lancet, the drastic purge, and the terrible salivants of the materia medica, would arise from every graveyard. The motto of modern medical science is "Preserve and Regulate, not destroy," and no remedy of our day is so entirely in harmony with this philanthropic logic as Dr. Walker's Vegetable Vinegar Bitters. In this powerful, yet harmless restorative, dyspepsia, bilious complaints, and all diseases of the stomach, liver, bowels and nerves, encounter an irresistible antidote.

SLEEPLESSNESS.—Sleeplessness comes from poverty of the blood, the irritability of the brain tissue consumes the nutrition of the blood too rapidly. Sedatives and narcotics may relieve for a time, but as they do not remove the cause they do not cure, soon lose their power, and sleep is sought for in vain. The only true remedy is that which builds up the system, renews life action, strengthens the brain, and gives to the blood those materials lost by a diseased condition. Such a remedy may be found in Dr. Price's Blood Enricher, better in the long run than all the sleep producing agents known. Druggists have it for sale.

SIXTEEN YEARS OF SUCCESS.—In 1856 the now famous Mustang Liniment was first made known to the public by an extensive system of advertising. From that time to the present, the demand for it has been steadily increasing, until it has taken the lead of all embrocations, lotions, ointments, and other external remedies, imported or domestic, ever introduced into the American market. In the most celebrated racing and trotting stables, in the establishments of stage and city car companies, and in the stables of private gentlemen, it is the only recognized cure for such diseases of the horse as require outward treatment. Nor is it less valuable as a local application for some of the most distressing complaints to which man is subject. Rheumatism, stiffness of the joints, neuralgia, sore throat, tumors, wens, earache, toothache, yield to its pain-subduing, counter-irritant properties, and burns, scalds and cuts are healed with incredible rapidity under its operation.

ATMOSPHERIC POISON.—The spring sun calls up something besides the flowers and grasses. It evolves from the damp earth turbid rivers, stagnant pools and black morasses, the gaseous provocatives of disease. From the offal and garbage of unclean cities, too, it exhales an effluvia destructive of health and vigor. Periodic fevers of various types are now raging with unusual virulence in various parts of the country, and there are complaints from all quarters of a singularly unhealthy spring. What is to be done in this emergency? The answer is simple and to the point. Strengthen the body. Weakness predisposes the system to disease. Commence at once a course of the most genial of tonics, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Be assured that the germs of epidemic and endemic fevers will never infect the physique that has been fortified and regulated with this glorious vegetable restorative. A moist atmosphere aggravates dyspepsia, and all diseases of a billious type, and the sudden thermometrical changes common at this season, are a severe trial even to strong constitutions. There is but one way of combatting these deleterious agencies, and that is by invigorating the body, and imparting a healthy activity to all its functions. The only specific required for this purpose is Hostetter's Bitters. Of all vegetable tonics and alteratives, it is the purest and the best. Its medicinal ingredients include all the juices and extracts of the most approved tonic, anti-billious and antiseptic products of the Botanic Kingdom, and they are combined with a stimulant far superior in quality to the alcohol used in preparing the tinctures and extracts of the "regular" pharmacopœia.

Section 7. Be it further enacted, That the Governor be and he is hereby authorized and required to draw his warrant upon the Treasury in favor of said committee, or such persons as they may designate for an amount sufficient to defray the expenses of publishing this preamble, and such other printing as may be necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this act.

ATLANTA

City Hospital.

THE need of a CITY HOSPITAL for Atlanta has long been felt, but all efforts heretofore for the establishment of such have failed, our people being too poor to raise the money necessary for such a purpose, and the depleted condition of our State Treasury being such as to render successful legislation in the matter both impracticable and hopeless.

It is, therefore, proposed to appeal to all friends of so benevolent a project, and thus secure a nucleus to encourage an increase of the private donations already promised, which will render the scheme a success; and while the erection of such an Institution will be an enduring Monument to the Charity and Liberality of our citizens, it will also be in keeping with our onward march in the cause of Civilization and Progress.

Every drop of the SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT communicates through the Blood, Sweat, Urine, and other fluids and juices of the system the vigor of life, for it repairs the wastes of the body with new and sound material. Scrofula, Syphilis, Consumption, Glandular disease, Ulcers in the throat, Mouth, Tumors, Nodes in the Glands and other parts of the system, Sore Eyes, Strumorous discharges from the Ears, and the worst forms of Skin diseases. Eruptions, Fevers, Sores, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, Acne, Black Spots, Worms in the Flesh, Tumors, Cancers in the Womb, and all weakening and painful discharges, Night Sweats, Loss of Sperm and all wastes of the life principle, are within the curative range of this wonder of Modern Chemistry, and a few days' use will prove to any person using it for either of these forms of disease its potent powers to cure them.

If the patient, daily becoming reduced by the wastes and decomposition that is continually progressing, succeeds in arresting these wastes, and repairs the same with new material made from healthy blood—and this the SARSAPARILLIAN will and does secure—a cure is certain; for when once this remedy commences its work of purification, and succeeds in diminishing the loss of wastes, its repairs will be rapid, and every day the patient will feel himself growing better and stronger, the food digesting better, appetite improving, and flesh and weight increasing.

Not only does the SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT excel all known remedial agents in the cure of Chronic, Scrofulous, Constitutional, and Skin diseases; but it is the only positive cure for
